Your letters my dear Susan are marks of your attention & love that are highly gratifying to me but at the same time they occasion me much anxiety the state of your own health & that of our dear boy is by no means such a one as I hoped to receive - the weather indeed has been extremely disagreeable since you left me - a continuance of easterly winds & rain has made the air unfit for the respiration of weak & frail people - I feel it but not in so great a degree as I supposed I should - I pray you take care of yourself & the boy & if you find that you do not get better and his cough continues make arrangements to return home appoint your time & I will get Tranks to come for you - I wish you to go to New York before you return if your mother in law does not return you will see her there which is just the same thing -

I have bought myself a riding horse to take a little exercise - the weather has been such that I have not been able to use him -

The advertisement Houstoun mentions I suppose is the one that proceeds from the arrangement made with RPB respecting the Judgment to your Father's estate - the lands would be to be sold under it about the time He left Savannah - however get the paper if you can -

I have enquired about a person to Callender your Curtains - the woman who did such things here is dead - I cannot find that there is any other who has undertaken the business -

The French Indiaman sells some of her Teas whether of the first quality I cannot say - I spoke to Mr. Meade if his family gets any they will let you in for ~~a~~ some - I am told it is best not to buy too much at a time as it loses its flavor -

Jacob is just crawled out - Billy was very slightly affected and as for Daphne she is the greatest chatterer that can be continually talking - something to stop her tongue will be advantageous -

I have not yet sold your Bedsteads &c - I shall sell the side Board & Cupboards - old tables & get a new side Board here -

Give my love to every body - Kiss Peter & take care of him & yourself - remember in yours this health is wrapped up my happiness -

Adieu

Yrs affectionately

John Stan
